Powering Your Business Beyond Face to Face

itmaconnect.com

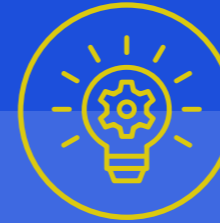

Connecting the Global Textile Community Before, During and After ITMA

Since 1951, ITMA has been the key marketplace for textile technology manufacturers to launch and showcase the latest innovations, transforming the textile industry forward from edition to edition.

ITMAconnect is the one-stop sourcing platform and knowledge hub. Participants can start the engagements before the exhibition, meet in-person at ITMA, and continue the conversations post exhibition.

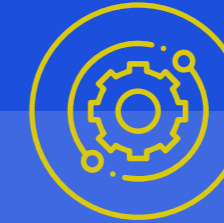

Build connections, source technologies and solutions, share ideas and grow your business with ITMAconnect.

Pinpoint Business Opportunities in Advance

Maximise your time and access to buyers at ITMA 2023 early.

Start your engagement with the smart messaging and video meeting feature. Schedule your in-person meeting via the business matching tool!

Find Your Best Match

Powered by artificial intelligence, ITMAconnect goes beyond keywords to find your best match. It combines user's profile, interest and platform browsing patterns to recommend not just the best people, company and products, but also content that are most relevant to you.

Content All Year Round

ITMAconnect is the go-to knowledge hub for textile related content and events.

From live-streaming, community forums and showcases by technology manufacturers and IP owners, there's something for everyone.

Come Journey with Us

As an online platform, ITMAconnect offers us even more value to our participation at ITMA 2023 as we can establish a brand presence all year round. It's a useful platform for us to discover, target and reach out to more buyers, pre and post exhibition. I am looking forward to getting a head start in reaching out to our customers before meeting them onsite."

Oscar Rius
CEO and Co-Owner, Rius-Comatex

It is great to learn that with ITMAconnect, we can now get in touch with ITMA 2023 exhibitors conveniently through the platform even before the exhibition. This will help our members plan their visits better since ITMA is such a big show and there are many innovative technologies to explore.”

Julieta Pagliuca
Project Manager
The Brazilian Textile and Apparel
Industry Association (ABIT)

We have taken part in many ITMA exhibitions and there are so many customers to attend to. With the ITMAconnect business matching tool, we can start reaching out to our potential customers even before ITMA 2023. This will enable us to be more productive when we are onsite. In addition, we can continue our conversations even after the exhibition, as well as contact prospects whom we are unable to meet onsite.”
